You may list additional grants or contracts on additional sheets. In July 2001, NASD Regulation, a predecessor organization to FINRA, entered into a contract with the SEC to build and operate the Investment Adviser Registration Depository (IARD). The IARD is the central system used by the SEC and the states to register/license investment adviser firms and individual investment adviser representatives. The original contract, with a value of $3.2 million, was for a term of 5 years with three annual renewal periods. The original term of the contract expired in 2006 and one year renewal periods were executed in 2006, 2007 and 2008. The continuing contract became effective on July 23, 2009 for a term of one year with an option for four annual renewals. A one year renewal was effected in 2010. The IARD system is fully funded by fees paid by system users.
