INVESTIGATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE PLAN OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SERVICES FOR THE ONE HUNDRED THIRTEENTH CONGRESS

AMENDMENT #4

To the Resolution authorizing the issuance of subpoenas to compel the testimony of certain employees of the Bureau of the Consumer Financial Protection

OFFERED BY Greer

April 29, 2014

THE NATIONAL TREASURY EMPLOYEES UNION AGREED TO TESTIFY WITHOUT A SUBPOENA

On page 1, line 19, insert the following:

Whereas in a letter to the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee Chairman dated April 28, 2014, Colleen M. Kelley, the national President of the National Treasury Employees Union (NTEU) informed the Committee that she, and Robert Cauldwell, the President of NTEU Chapter 335, are willing to testify on allegations of discrimination and retaliation at the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) without the need for a subpoena.
