

MEMORANDUM

To: Members of the Committee on Financial Services

From: FSC Majority Staff

Date: June 21, 2018

Subject: June 26, 2018, Housing and Insurance Subcommittee Hearing Entitled “Oversight of the Federal Government’s Approach to Lead-Based Paint and Mold Remediation in Public and Subsidized Housing”.

The Subcommittee on Housing and Insurance Subcommittee will hold a hearing entitled “Oversight of the Federal Government’s Approach to Lead-Based Paint and Mold Remediation in Public and Subsidized Housing” on June 26, 2018 at 10:00 a.m. in Room 2128 of the Rayburn House Office Building. This will be a one-panel hearing with the following witnesses:

- Ms. Emily A. Benfer, Esq., Distinguished Visiting Scholar and Senior Fellow, Solomon Center for Health Law and Policy, Yale Law School
- Ms. Julie Brewen, Chief Executive Officer, Housing Catalyst
- Ms. Rachel Fee, Executive Director, New York Housing Conference, Inc.
- Mr. Jeremy Kirkland, Acting Deputy Inspector General, Office of Inspector General, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
- Ms. Karen McKeown, State Health Officer and Administrator, Division of Public Health, Wisconsin Department of Health Services
- Mr. Jeffery K. Patterson, CEO, Cuyahoga Metropolitan Housing Authority

This hearing will examine how the Federal government, through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development’s (HUD) programs, remedies unsafe living conditions caused by lead-based paint and mold for many individuals and families that live in public and subsidized housing. The hearing will also review the June 14, 2018 HUD Inspector General’s report entitled “HUD’s Oversight of Lead-Based Paint in Public and Housing Choice Voucher Programs”.
