

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2205

To protect financial information relating to consumers, to require notice of security breaches, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 1, 2015

Mr. NEUGEBAUER (for himself and Mr. CARNEY) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, and in addition to the Committee on Financial Services, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

---

A BILL

To protect financial information relating to consumers, to require notice of security breaches, and for other purposes.

1        Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4        This Act may be cited as the “Data Security Act of 5 2015”.

6 SEC. 2. PURPOSES.

7        The purposes of this Act are—

1           (1) to establish strong and uniform national 2 data security and breach notification standards for 3 electronic data; and

4           (2) to expressly preempt any related State laws
5 in order to provide the Federal Trade Commission
6 with authority to enforce such standards for entities
7 covered under this Act.

8 SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

9           For purposes of this Act, the following definitions
10 shall apply:

11           (1) AFFILIATE.—The term “affiliate” means 12 any company that controls, is controlled by, or is 13 under common control with another company.

14           (2) AGENCY.—The term “agency” has the same 15 meaning as in section 551(1) of title 5, United 16 States Code.

17           (3) BREACH OF DATA SECURITY.—

18           (A) IN GENERAL.—The term “breach of 19 data security” means the unauthorized acquisi-
20 tion of sensitive financial account information
21 or sensitive personal information.

22           (B) EXCEPTION FOR DATA THAT IS NOT IN 23 USABLE FORM.—The term “breach of data se-24 curity” does not include the unauthorized ac-
25 quisition of sensitive financial account informa-

1           tion or sensitive personal information that is 2           encrypted, redacted, or otherwise protected by 3           another method that renders the information
4           unreadable and unusable if the encryption, re-5           daction, or protection process or key is not also 6           acquired without authorization.

7           (4) CARRIER.—The term “carrier” means any 8           entity that—

9                   (A) provides electronic data transmission, 10                  routing, intermediate, and transient storage, or 11                  connections to its system or network;

12                  (B) does not select or modify the content 13                  of the electronic data;

14                  (C) is not the sender or the intended re-15                  cipient of the data; and

16                  (D) does not differentiate sensitive finan-
17                  cial account information or sensitive personal 18                  information from other information that the en-19                  tity transmits, routes, stores in intermediate or 20                  transient storage, or for which such entity pro-21                  vides connections.

22           (5) COMMISSION.—The term “Commission”
23           means the Federal Trade Commission.

24           (6) CONSUMER.—The term “consumer” means 25           an individual.

1           (7) CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCY THAT COM-
2           PILES AND MAINTAINS FILES ON CONSUMERS ON A
3           NATIONWIDE BASIS.—The term “consumer reporting
4           agency that compiles and maintains files on con-
5           sumers on a nationwide basis” has the same mean-6           ing as in section 603(p) of the Fair Credit Report-7           ing Act (15 U.S.C. 1681a(p)).

8           (8) COVERED ENTITY.—

9           (A) IN GENERAL.—The term “covered en-10          tity” means any individual, partnership, cor-
11          poration, trust, estate, cooperative, association, 12          or entity that accesses, maintains, commu-
13          nicates, or handles sensitive financial account 14          information or sensitive personal information.

15          (B) EXCEPTION.—The term “covered enti-16          ty” does not include any agency or any other 17          unit of Federal, State, or local government or 18          any subdivision of the unit.

19          (9) FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.—The term “fi-20          nancial institution” has the same meaning as in sec-21          tion 509(3) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (15 22          U.S.C. 6809(3)).

23          (10) INFORMATION SECURITY PROGRAM.—The 24          term “information security program” means the ad-
25          ministrative, technical, or physical safeguards that a

1 covered entity uses to access, collect, distribute, 2 process, protect, store, use, transmit, dispose of, or 3 otherwise handle sensitive financial account informa-
4 tion and sensitive personal information.

5 (11) SENSITIVE FINANCIAL ACCOUNT INFORMA-
6 TION.—The term “sensitive financial account infor-7 mation” means a financial account number relating 8 to a consumer, including a credit card number or 9 debit card number, in combination with any security 10 code, access code, password, or other personal identi-11 fication information required to access the financial 12 account.

13 (12) SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION.—

14 (A) IN GENERAL.—The term “sensitive 15 personal information” includes—

16 (i) a Social Security number; and

17 (ii) the first and last name of a con-18 sumer in combination with—

19 (I) the consumer’s driver’s li-
20 cense number, passport number, mili-
21 tary identification number, or other
22 similar number issued on a govern-
23 ment document used to verify identity;

24 (II) information that could be 25 used to access a consumer’s account,

1 such as a user name and password or 2 e-mail and password; or

3 (III) biometric data of the con-
4 sumer used to gain access to financial 5 accounts of the consumer.

6 (B) EXCEPTION.—The term “sensitive per-7 sonal information” does not include publicly 8 available information that is lawfully made
9 available to the general public and obtained 10 from—

11 (i) Federal, State, or local government 12 records; or

13 (ii) widely distributed media.

14 (13) SUBSTANTIAL HARM OR INCONVEN-
15 IENCE.—The term “substantial harm or inconven-16 ience” means—

17 (A) identity theft; or

18 (B) fraudulent transactions on financial 19 accounts.

20 (14) THIRD-PARTY SERVICE PROVIDER.—The 21 term “third-party service provider” means any per-22 son that maintains, processes, or otherwise is per-23 mitted access to sensitive financial account informa-
24 tion or sensitive personal information in connection 25 with providing services to a covered entity.

1 SEC. 4. PROTECTION OF INFORMATION AND SECURITY

2 BREACH NOTIFICATION.

3 (a) SECURITY PROCEDURES REQUIRED.—

4 (1) IN GENERAL.—Each covered entity shall de-5 velop, implement, and maintain a comprehensive in-6 formation security program that contains adminis-
7 trative, technical, and physical safeguards that are 8 reasonably designed to achieve the objectives in 9 paragraph (2).

10 (2) OBJECTIVES.—The objectives of this sub-11 section are to—

12 (A) ensure the security and confidentiality 13 of sensitive financial account information and 14 sensitive personal information;

15 (B) protect against any anticipated threats 16 or hazards to the security or integrity of such 17 information; and

18 (C) protect against unauthorized acquisi-19 tion of such information that could result in 20 substantial harm to the individuals to whom 21 such information relates.

22 (3) LIMITATION.—A covered entity's informa-
23 tion security program under paragraph (1) shall be 24 appropriate to—

25 (A) the size and complexity of the covered 26 entity;

1 (B) the nature and scope of the activities
2 of the covered entity; and

3 (C) the sensitivity of the consumer infor-
4 mation to be protected.

5 (4) ELEMENTS.—In order to develop, imple-
6 ment, maintain, and enforce its information security 7 program, a covered entity shall—

8 (A) designate an employee or employees to 9 coordinate the information security program;

10 (B) identify reasonably foreseeable internal 11 and external risks to the security, confiden-
12 tiality, and integrity of sensitive financial ac-
13 count information and sensitive personal infor-
14 mation and assess the sufficiency of any safe-15 guards in place to control these risks, including 16 consideration of risks in each relevant area of 17 the covered entity's operations, including—

18 (i) employee training and manage-
19 ment;

20 (ii) information systems, including 21 network and software design, as well as in-22 formation processing, storage, trans-23 mission, and disposal; and

1 (iii) detecting, preventing, and re-
2 sponding to attacks, intrusions, or other 3 systems failures;

4 (C) design and implement information
5 safeguards to control the risks identified in its 6 risk assessment, and regularly assess the effec-
7 tiveness of the safeguards' key controls, sys-
8 tems, and procedures;

9 (D) oversee third-party service providers 10 by—

11 (i) taking reasonable steps to select 12 and retain third-party service providers
13 that are capable of maintaining appro-14 priate safeguards for the sensitive financial 15 account information or sensitive personal 16 information at issue;

17 (ii) requiring third-party service pro-
18 viders by contract to implement and main-19 tain such safeguards; and

20 (iii) reasonably oversee or obtain an 21 assessment of the third-party service pro-
22 vider's compliance with contractual obliga-
23 tions, where appropriate in light of the 24 covered entity's risk assessment; and

1 (E) evaluate and adjust the information 2 security program in light of the results of the 3 risk assessments and testing and monitoring re-4 quired by subparagraphs (C) and (D) and any 5 material changes to the covered entity's oper-
6 ations or business arrangements, or any other 7 circumstances that the covered entity knows or 8 has reason to know may have a material impact 9 on its information security program.

10 (5) SECURITY CONTROLS.—Each covered entity 11 shall—

12 (A) consider whether the following security
13 measures are appropriate for the covered entity
14 and, if so, adopt those measures that the cov-
15 ered entity concludes are appropriate—

16 (i) access controls on information sys-
17 tems, including controls to authenticate
18 and permit access only to authorized indi-
19 viduals and controls to prevent employees
20 from providing sensitive financial account
21 information or sensitive personal informa-
22 tion to unauthorized individuals who may 23 seek to obtain this information through 24 fraudulent means;

1 (ii) access restrictions at physical lo-
2 cations containing sensitive financial ac-3 count information or sensitive personal in-4 formation, such as buildings, computer fa-5 cilities, and records storage facilities, to 6 permit access only to authorized individ-
7 uals;

8 (iii) encryption of electronic sensitive
9 financial account information or sensitive 10 personal information, including while in 11 transit or in storage on networks or sys-
12 tems to which unauthorized individuals 13 may have access;

14 (iv) procedures designed to ensure 15 that information system modifications are 16 consistent with the covered entity's infor-
17 mation security program;

18 (v) dual control procedures, segrega-
19 tion of duties, and employee background
20 checks for employees with responsibilities
21 for, or access to, sensitive financial account
22 information or sensitive personal informa-
23 tion;

24 (vi) monitoring systems and proce-
25 dures to detect actual and attempted at-

1 tacks on, or intrusions into, information
2 systems;

3 (vii) response programs that specify
4 actions to be taken when the covered entity
5 suspects or detects that unauthorized indi-
6 viduals have gained access to information 7 systems; and

8 (viii) measures to protect against de-
9 struction, loss, or damage of sensitive fi-
10 nancial account information or sensitive
11 personal information due to potential envi-
12 ronmental hazards, such as fire and water
13 damage or technological failures;

14 (B) develop, implement, and maintain ap-
15 propriate measures to properly dispose of sen-
16 sitive financial account information and sen-17 sitive personal information; and

18 (C) train staff to implement the covered 19 entity's information security program.

20 (6) ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS.—

21 (A) BOARD OVERSIGHT.—If a covered enti-
22 ty has a board of directors, the covered entity's
23 board of directors or an appropriate committee 24 of the board shall—

1 (i) approve the covered entity's writ-
2 ten information security program; and

3 (ii) oversee the development, imple-
4 mentation, and maintenance of the covered 5 entity's information security program, in-6 cluding assigning specific responsibility for 7 its implementation and reviewing reports
8 from management.

9 (B) REPORT TO THE BOARD.—If a covered
10 entity has a board of directors, the covered enti-
11 ty shall report to its board or an appropriate 12 committee of the board at least annually, in-13 cluding describing—

14 (i) the overall status of the informa-
15 tion security program and the covered enti-
16 ty's compliance with this Act; and 17 (ii) material matters related to its 18 program, addressing issues such as risk as-19 sessment, risk management and control de-

20 cisions, service provider arrangements, re-
21 sults of testing, security breaches or viola-22 tions and management's responses, and 23 recommendations for changes in the infor-
24 mation security program.

1 (b) INVESTIGATION REQUIRED.—If a covered entity 2 believes that a breach of data security has or may have 3 occurred in relation to sensitive financial account informa-
4 tion or sensitive personal information that is maintained, 5 communicated, or otherwise handled by, or on behalf of, 6 the covered entity, the covered entity shall conduct an in-7 vestigation to—

8 (1) assess the nature and scope of the incident;

9 (2) identify any sensitive financial account in-10 formation or sensitive personal information that may 11 have been involved in the incident;

12 (3) determine if the sensitive financial account 13 information or sensitive personal information has 14 been acquired without authorization; and 15 (4) take reasonable measures to restore the se-16 curity and confidentiality of the systems com-17 promised in the breach.

18 (c) NOTICE REQUIRED.—

19 (1) IN GENERAL.—If a covered entity deter-
20 mines under subsection (b) that the unauthorized 21 acquisition of sensitive financial account information
22 or sensitive personal information involved in a 23 breach of data security is reasonably likely to cause 24 substantial harm to the consumers to whom the in-

1 formation relates, the covered entity, or a third 2 party acting on behalf of the covered entity, shall—

3 (A) notify, without unreasonable delay—

4 (i) an appropriate Federal law en-
5 forcement agency;

6 (ii) the appropriate agency or author-
7 ity identified in section 5;

8 (iii) any relevant payment card net-
9 work, if the breach involves a breach of 10 payment card numbers;

11 (iv) each consumer reporting agency
12 that compiles and maintains files on con-
13 sumers on a nationwide basis, if the breach 14 involves sensitive personal information or 15 sensitive financial account information re-16 lating to 5,000 or more consumers; and 17 (v) all consumers to whom the sen-

18 sitive financial account information or sen-
19 sitive personal information relates;

20 (B) provide notice to consumers by—

21 (i) written notification sent to the 22 postal address of the consumer in the 23 records of the covered entity;

1 (ii) telephonic notification to the num-
2 ber of the consumer in the records of the 3 covered entity;

4 (iii) e-mail notification to the con-
5 sumer (or via other electronic means) in 6 the records of the covered entity; or

7 (iv) substitute notification in print
8 and to broadcast media where the indi-
9 vidual whose personal information was ac-
10 quired resides, if providing written or e-11 mail notification is not feasible due to—

12 (I) lack of sufficient contact in-13 formation for the consumers that 14 must be notified;

15 (II) excessive cost to the covered 16 entity; or

17 (III) exigent circumstances; and 18 (C) provide notice that includes—

19 (i) a description of the type of sen-
20 sitive financial account information or sen-
21 sitive personal information involved in the
22 breach of data security;

23 (ii) a general description of the ac-
24 tions taken by the covered entity to restore 25 the security and confidentiality of the sen-

1 sensitive financial account information or sen-
2 sitive personal information involved in the 3 breach of data security; and

4 (iii) a summary of rights of victims of 5 identity theft prepared under section
6 609(d) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act 7 (15 U.S.C. 1681g(d)), if the breach of 8 data security involves sensitive personal in-9 formation.

10 (2) DELAY PERMITTED WHEN REQUESTED BY 11 LAW ENFORCEMENT.—A covered entity may delay 12 any notification described under paragraph (1) if 13 such delay is requested by a law enforcement agen-
14 cy.

15 (d) CLARIFICATION.—A financial institution shall 16 have no obligation under this Act for a breach of security 17 at another covered entity involving sensitive financial ac-
18 count information relating to an account owned by the fi-19 nancial institution.

20 (e) SPECIAL NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS.—

21 (1) THIRD-PARTY SERVICE PROVIDERS.—In the 22 event of a breach of security of a system maintained
23 by a third-party service provider that has been con-
24 tracted to maintain, store, or process data in elec-25 tronic form containing sensitive financial account in-

1 formation or sensitive personal information on behalf
2 of a covered entity who owns or possesses such data, 3 such third-party service provider shall—

4 (A) notify the covered entity; and

5 (B) notify consumers if it is agreed in 6 writing that the third-party service provider will 7 provide such notification on behalf of the cov-8 ered entity.

9 (2) CARRIER OBLIGATIONS.—

10 (A) IN GENERAL.—If a carrier becomes 11 aware of a breach of security involving data in 12 electronic form containing sensitive financial ac-
13 count information or sensitive personal informa-
14 tion that is owned or licensed by a covered enti-
15 ty that connects to or uses a system or network
16 provided by the carrier for the purpose of trans-17 mitting, routing, or providing intermediate or 18 transient storage of such data, such carrier
19 shall notify the covered entity who initiated 20 such connection, transmission, routing, or stor-21 age of the data containing sensitive financial 22 account information or sensitive personal infor-
23 mation, if such covered entity can be reasonably 24 identified. If a service provider is acting solely 25 as a third-party service provider for purposes of

1           this subsection, the service provider has no
2           other notification obligations under this section.

3                   (B) COVERED ENTITIES WHO RECEIVE NO-
4           TICE FROM CARRIERS.—Upon receiving notifi-
5           cation from a service provider under paragraph 6           (1), a covered entity shall provide notification
7           as required under this section.

8                   (3) COMMUNICATIONS WITH ACCOUNT HOLD-9           ERS.—If a covered entity that is not a financial in-10          stitution experiences a breach of security involving 11          sensitive financial account information, a financial 12          institution that issues an account to which the sen-
13          sitive financial account information relates may com-14          municate with the account holder regarding the 15          breach, including—

16                   (A) an explanation that the financial insti-17                  tution was not breached, and that the breach 18                  occurred at a third-party that had access to the 19                  consumer’s sensitive financial account informa-20                  tion; or

21                   (B) identify the covered entity that experi-22                  enced the breach after the covered entity has 23                  provided notice consistent with this Act.

24                   (f) COMPLIANCE.—

1           (1) IN GENERAL.—An entity shall be deemed to 2           be in compliance with—

3           (A) in the case of a financial institution—

4                   (i) subsection (a), and any regulations
5                   prescribed under subsection (a), if the fi-6                   nancial institution maintains policies and 7                   procedures to protect the confidentiality
8                   and security of sensitive financial account
9                   information and sensitive personal infor-
10                  mation that are consistent with the policies 11                  and procedures of the financial institution 12                  that are designed to comply with the re-13                  quirements of section 501(b) of the 14                  Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (15 U.S.C.
15                  6801(b)) and any regulations or guidance 16                  prescribed under that section that are ap-17                  plicable to the financial institution; and 18                   (ii) subsections (b) and (c), and any 19                   regulations prescribed under subsections

20                   (b) and (c), if the financial institution—

21                           (I)(aa) maintains policies and 22                           procedures to investigate and provide 23                           notice to consumers of breaches of 24                           data security that are consistent with 25                           the policies and procedures of the fi-

1 nancial institution that are designed 2 to comply with the investigation and 3 notice requirements established by 4 regulations or guidance under section
5 501(b) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley
6 Act (15 U.S.C. 6801(b)) that are ap-
7 plicable to the financial institution;

8 (bb) is an affiliate of a bank
9 holding company that maintains poli-10 cies and procedures to investigate and 11 provide notice to consumers of 12 breaches of data security that are con-
13 sistent with the policies and proce-14 dures of a bank that is an affiliate of 15 the financial institution, and the poli-
16 cies and procedures of the bank are 17 designed to comply with the investiga-
18 tion and notice requirements estab-
19 lished by any regulations or guidance
20 under section 501(b) of the Gramm-
21 Leach-Bliley Act (15 U.S.C. 6801(b))
22 that are applicable to the bank; or

23 (cc)(AA) is an affiliate of a sav-
24 ings and loan holding company that 25 maintains policies and procedures to

1 investigate and provide notice to con-
2 sumers of data breaches of data secu-
3 rity that are consistent with the poli-
4 cies and procedures of a savings asso-
5 ciation that is an affiliate of the fi-6 nancial institution; and

7 (BB) the policies and procedures
8 of the savings association are designed
9 to comply with the investigation and 10 notice requirements established by any 11 regulations or guidelines under section
12 501(b) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley
13 Act (15 U.S. 6801(b)) that are appli-14 cable to savings associations; and

15 (II) provides for notice to the en-
16 tities described under clauses (ii), (iii),
17 and (iv) of subsection (c)(1)(A), if no-
18 tice is provided to consumers pursu-19 ant to the policies and procedures of 20 the financial institution described in 21 subclause (I); and
