PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

Introduced by Representative McHenry, H.R. 1839, the “Reforming Access for Investments in Startup Enterprises Act of 2015” or “RAISE” Act, amends Section 4 of the Securities Act of 1933 to increase market liquidity and resolve legal uncertainty that impedes employees of private companies from selling their company-issued securities. Currently, a holder of securities issued in a private placement may resell the securities on a public market after a holding period. However, there is not a similar law for the private resale of restricted securities. Accordingly, H.R. 1839 codifies a legal framework for these transactions to facilitate private company capital formation.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

H.R. 1839, as amended, facilitates the sale of company-issued securities by employees of private companies by amending Section 4 of the Securities Act of 1933 to provide that the resale of any securities are “exempted transactions” (which do not trigger the Act’s registration provisions) as long as: (1) each purchaser is an accredited investor; (2) the securities are not offered by means of general solicitation or general advertising; (3) the seller and a prospective purchaser obtain from the issuer certain information relating to the sale; and (4) the transaction does not involve a public offering.

At an April 29, 2015, Capital Markets Subcommittee hearing, Shane Kovacs, Executive Vice President and Chief Executive Officer of PTC Therapeutics, Inc., testified that H.R. 1839 will enhance liquidity in the market for company-issued securities and further improvements made by the Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act (P.L. 112–106):

by ensuring that the legal framework at the SEC supports the secondary market for the shares offered and sold in Regulation A+ offerings. Without enhanced liquidity on the secondary market, investors could be hesitant to participate in Regulation A+ offerings—but Representative McHenry has taken the important step to codify the regulatory framework for the resale of restricted securities, enhancing the capital potential of a Regulation A+ offering and ensuring that Title IV of the JOBS Act will have its intended impact.

At the same hearing, Tom Quaadman of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce testified that H.R. 1839 “would help foster a robust secondary market for the resale of restricted securities that were acquired in a private placement. While past court decisions have had the effect of allowing the resale of certain private offerings, restricted securities remain an illiquid market and could benefit from a modernization of current SEC rules.” In a June 23, 2015, letter to Chairman Hensarling, Sara Hanks, the Co-Founder and CEO of CrowdCheck, Inc., a provider of due diligence services for investors looking for investments and entrepreneurs seeking funding wrote that, “[t]he employees of private companies, as well as founders and early investors . . . have an increasing need for some level of liquidity before those companies choose to publicly register an IPO. Some companies (and CrowdCheck is among them) are unlikely to make a registered public offering of their shares for many years, if ever.”

Finally, Steven Bochner of the Palo Alto-based law firm Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati wrote to Chairman Hensarling on June 11, 2015, in support of H.R. 1839 that, “[f]acilitating shareholder liquidity is critical to the overall success of private companies. Private companies . . . find it much easier to raise primary capital when prospective investors understand that some degree of liquidity will be available to them, particularly in the case of private companies that wish to remain private and defer their IPOs.”

U.S. CONGRESS,

Washington, DC, August 20, 2015.

Hon. JEB HENSARLING,
*Chairman, Committee on Financial Services
House of Representatives, Washington, DC.*

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 1839, the Reforming Access for Investments in Startup Enterprises Act of 2015.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Susan Willie.

KEITH HALL.

Enclosure.

H.R. 1839—Reforming Access for Investments in Startup Enterprises Act of 2015

H.R. 1839 would exempt certain securities from statutory requirements that, among other things, they be registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) prior to being offered for sale. To be eligible for the exemption, such securities must be offered only in a private sale to accredited investors that have received certain information about the issuer of the security and the security itself.

Based on information from the SEC, CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 1839 would cost less than $500,000 over the 2016–2020 period; the agency would not make any changes to current regulations as a result of the bill. Under current law, the SEC is authorized to collect fees to offset its annual appropriation; therefore, assuming appropriation action consistent with that authority, CBO estimates that implementing the bill would have a negligible effect on net discretionary spending. Enacting H.R. 1839 would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply.

H.R. 1839 would impose an intergovernmental mandate as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) by prohibiting states from requiring the registration or review of the sale of securities in some cases. CBO estimates that the cost to state governments of complying with the mandate would be small and well below the annual threshold established in UMRA for intergovernmental mandates ($76 million in 2014, adjusted annually for inflation).

H.R. 1839 contains no private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA.

The CBO staff contacts for this estimate are Susan Willie (for federal costs) and Melissa Merrell (for intergovernmental mandates). The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

FEDERAL MANDATES STATEMENT

The Committee adopts as its own the estimate of Federal mandates prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 423 of the Unfunded Mandates reform Act.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE STATEMENT

No advisory committees within the meaning of section 5(b) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act were created by this legislation.

APPLICABILITY TO LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

The Committee finds that the legislation does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of the section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act.

EARMARK IDENTIFICATION

H.R. 1839 does not contain any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in clause 9 of rule XXI.

DUPLICATION OF FEDERAL PROGRAMS

Pursuant to section 3(g) of H. Res. 5, 114th Cong. (2015), the Committee states that no provision of H.R. 1839 establishes or re-authorizes a program of the Federal Government known to be duplicative of another Federal program, a program that was included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111–139, or a program related to a program identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance.

DISCLOSURE OF DIRECTED RULEMAKING

Pursuant to section 3(i) of H. Res. 5, 114th Cong. (2015), the Committee states that H.R. 1839 does not require any directed rulemakings.

(b) COVERED SECURITIES.—For purposes of this section, the following are covered securities:

(1) EXCLUSIVE FEDERAL REGISTRATION OF NATIONALLY TRADED SECURITIES.—A security is a covered security if such security is—

(A) listed, or authorized for listing, on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, or listed, or authorized for listing, on the National Market System of the Nasdaq Stock Market (or any successor to such entities);

(B) listed, or authorized for listing, on a national securities exchange (or tier or segment thereof) that has listing standards that the Commission determines by rule (on its own initiative or on the basis of a petition) are substantially similar to the listing standards applicable to securities described in subparagraph (A); or

(C) a security of the same issuer that is equal in seniority or that is a senior security to a security described in subparagraph (A) or (B).

(2) EXCLUSIVE FEDERAL REGISTRATION OF INVESTMENT COMPANIES.—A security is a covered security if such security is a security issued by an investment company that is registered, or that has filed a registration statement, under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

(3) SALES TO QUALIFIED PURCHASERS.—A security is a covered security with respect to the offer or sale of the security to qualified purchasers, as defined by the Commission by rule. In prescribing such rule, the Commission may define the term “qualified purchaser” differently with respect to different categories of securities, consistent with the public interest and the protection of investors.

(4) EXEMPTION IN CONNECTION WITH CERTAIN EXEMPT OFFERINGS.—A security is a covered security with respect to a transaction that is exempt from registration under this title pursuant to—

(A) paragraph (1) or (3) of section 4, and the issuer of such security files reports with the Commission pursuant to section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;

(B) section 4(4);

(C) section 4(6);

(D) a rule or regulation adopted pursuant to section 3(b)(2) and such security is—

(i) offered or sold on a national securities exchange;

or

(ii) offered or sold to a qualified purchaser, as defined by the Commission pursuant to paragraph (3) with respect to that purchase or sale;

[(D)] (E) section 3(a), other than the offer or sale of a security that is exempt from such registration pursuant to paragraph (4), (10), or (11) of such section, except that a municipal security that is exempt from such registration pursuant to paragraph (2) of such section is not a covered security with respect to the offer or sale of such security in the State in which the issuer of such security is located; [or]

[(E)] (F) Commission rules or regulations issued under section 4(2), except that this subparagraph does not prohibit a State from imposing notice filing requirements that are substantially similar to those required by rule or regulation under section 4(2) that are in effect on September 1, 1996[.]; or

(G) section 4(a)(7).

(c) PRESERVATION OF AUTHORITY.—

(1) FRAUD AUTHORITY.—Consistent with this section, the securities commission (or any agency or office performing like functions) of any State shall retain jurisdiction under the laws of such State to investigate and bring enforcement actions, in connection with securities or securities transactions

(A) with respect to—

- (i) fraud or deceit; or
- (ii) unlawful conduct by a broker or dealer; and

(B) in connection to a transaction described under section 4(6), with respect to—

- (i) fraud or deceit; or
- (ii) unlawful conduct by a broker, dealer, funding portal, or issuer.

(2) PRESERVATION OF FILING REQUIREMENTS.—

(A) NOTICE FILINGS PERMITTED.—Nothing in this section prohibits the securities commission (or any agency or office performing like functions) of any State from requiring the filing of any document filed with the Commission pursuant to this title, together with annual or periodic reports of the value of securities sold or offered to be sold to persons located in the State (if such sales data is not included in documents filed with the Commission), solely for notice purposes and the assessment of any fee, together with a consent to service of process and any required fee.

(B) PRESERVATION OF FEES.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—Until otherwise provided by law, rule, regulation, or order, or other administrative action of any State or any political subdivision thereof, adopted after the date of enactment of the National Securities Markets Improvement Act of 1996, filing or registration fees with respect to securities or securities transactions shall continue to be collected in amounts determined pursuant to State law as in effect on the day before such date.

(ii) SCHEDULE.—The fees required by this subparagraph shall be paid, and all necessary supporting data on sales or offers for sales required under subparagraph (A), shall be reported on the same schedule as would have been applicable had the issuer not relied on the exemption provided in subsection (a).

(C) AVAILABILITY OF PREEMPTION CONTINGENT ON PAYMENT OF FEES.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—During the period beginning on the date of enactment of the National Securities Markets Improvement Act of 1996 and ending 3 years after that date of enactment, the securities commission (or any agency or office performing like functions) of any State may require the registration of securities issued by any issuer who refuses to pay the fees required by subparagraph (B).

(ii) DELAYS.—For purposes of this subparagraph, delays in payment of fees or underpayments of fees that are promptly remedied shall not constitute a refusal to pay fees.

(D) FEES NOT PERMITTED ON LISTED SECURITIES.—Notwithstanding subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), no filing or fee may be required with respect to any security that is a covered security pursuant to subsection (b)(1), or will be such a covered security upon completion of the transaction, or is a security of the same issuer that is equal in seniority or that is a senior security to a security that is a covered security pursuant to subsection (b)(1).

(F) FEES NOT PERMITTED ON CROWDFUNDED SECURITIES.—Notwithstanding subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), no filing or fee may be required with respect to any security that is a covered security pursuant to subsection (b)(4)(B), or will be such a covered security upon completion of the transaction, except for the securities commission (or any agency or office performing like functions) of the State of the principal place of business of the issuer, or any State in which purchasers of 50 percent or greater of the aggregate amount of the issue are residents, provided that for purposes of this subparagraph, the term “State” includes the District of Columbia and the territories of the United States.

(3) ENFORCEMENT OF REQUIREMENTS.—Nothing in this section shall prohibit the securities commission (or any agency or office performing like functions) of any State from suspending the offer or sale of securities within such State as a result of the failure to submit any filing or fee required under law and permitted under this section.

(d) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) OFFERING DOCUMENT.—The term “offering document”—

(A) has the meaning given the term “prospectus” in section 2(a)(10), but without regard to the provisions of subparagraphs (a) and (b) of that section; and

(B) includes a communication that is not deemed to offer a security pursuant to a rule of the Commission.

(2) PREPARED BY OR ON BEHALF OF THE ISSUER.—Not later than 6 months after the date of enactment of the National Securities Markets Improvement Act of 1996, the Commission shall, by rule, define the term “prepared by or on behalf of the issuer” for purposes of this section.

(3) STATE.—The term “State” has the same meaning as in section 3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

(4) SENIOR SECURITY.—The term “senior security” means any bond, debenture, note, or similar obligation or instrument constituting a security and evidencing indebtedness, and any stock of a class having priority over any other class as to distribution of assets or payment of dividends.
