

AMENDMENT

OFFERED BY HECK TO THE AMENDMENT OFFERED BY MR. POSEY

Page 1, line 6 of the amendment, strike “provide and make housing affordable for” and insert “provide housing that is reserved and affordable to”.

Page 1, lines 7 and 8 of the amendment, strike “housing, as defined by the Secretary” and insert “households, as defined by the Secretary, for a minimum term of 15 years”.

Page 1, line 10 of the amendment, after the first period insert the following: “The Secretary shall ensure that local governments are not incentivized or otherwise rewarded for eliminating or undermining the intent of zoning regulations or other regulations or policies that establish fair wages for laborers, ensure health and safety of buildings for residents and the general public, protect fair housing, establish environmental protections, establish standards for resiliency, prevent tenant displacement, or any other requirements that the Secretary determines it is in the public interest to preserve.”.

Page 1 of the amendment, in the matter proposed to be inserted at page 9, line 2, strike “provide and make housing affordable for” and insert “provide housing that is reserved and affordable to”.

Pages 1 and 2 of the amendment, in the matter proposed to be inserted at page 9, line 2, strike “housing, as defined by the Secretary” and insert “households, as defined by the Secretary, for a minimum term of 15 years”.

Page 2 of the amendment, in the matter proposed to be inserted at page 9, line 2, after “evaluated.” insert the following: “The Secretary shall ensure that local governments are not incentivized or otherwise rewarded for eliminating or undermining the intent of zoning regulations or other regulations or policies that establish fair wages for laborers, ensure health and safety of buildings for residents and the general public, protect fair housing, establish environmental protections, establish standards for resiliency, prevent tenant displacement, or any other requirements that the Secretary determines it is in the public interest to preserve.”.

Page 2 of the amendment, in the matter proposed to be inserted at page 10, line 21, strike “provide and make housing affordable for” and insert “provide housing that is reserved and affordable to”.

Page 2 of the amendment, in the matter proposed to be inserted at page 10, line 21, strike “housing, as defined by the Secretary” and insert “households, as defined by the Secretary, for a minimum term of 15 years”.

Page 2 of the amendment, in the matter proposed to be inserted at page 10, line 21, after “evaluated” insert the following: “. The Secretary shall ensure that local governments are not incentivized or otherwise rewarded for eliminating or undermining the intent of zoning regulations or other regulations or policies that establish fair wages for laborers, ensure health and safety of buildings for residents and the general public, protect fair housing, establish environmental protections, establish standards for resiliency, prevent tenant displacement, or any other requirements that the Secretary determines it is in the public interest to preserve”.

Page 2 of the amendment, in the matter proposed to be inserted at page 15, line 15, strike “provide and make housing affordable for” and insert “provide housing that is reserved and affordable to”.

Page 2 of the amendment, in the matter proposed to be inserted at page 15, line 15, strike “housing, as de-defined by the Secretary” and insert “households, as defined by the Secretary, for a minimum term of 15 years”.

Page 2 of the amendment, in the matter proposed to be inserted at page 15, line 15, after “evaluated.” insert the following: “The Secretary shall ensure that local governments are not incentivized or otherwise rewarded for eliminating or undermining the intent of zoning regulations or other regulations or policies that establish fair wages for laborers, ensure health and safety of buildings for residents and the general public, protect fair housing, establish environmental protections, establish standards for resiliency, prevent tenant displacement, or any other requirements that the Secretary determines it is in the public interest to preserve.”.

