SEC. 4001. LIMITATION.

No funds made available under this title or an amendment made by this title may be used to provide assistance to a United States person if the President or the head of the agency administering the assistance, finds that the United States person discharges, demotes, suspends, threatens, harasses, or in any other manner discriminates against an employee in the terms and conditions of employment for expressing disagreement or opposition in a personal capacity with respect to any of the following:

(1) The policies, practices, or objectives of the government of the People's Republic of China in connection with the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region or the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.
(2) Any activity that is intended to penalize, inflict economic harm on, or otherwise limit commercial relations with Israel.
