Addendum to “Truth In Testimony” Disclosure Form
Laura Moy
May 12, 2015

I do not receive federal funding or funding from foreign governments for my work. However, New America’s Open Technology Institute receives several grants that, while not directly related to the subject matter of the hearing, are related more broadly to Internet policy work.

Federal grants:

New America’s Open Technology Institute receives the following Federal grants:

Department of State S-LMAQM-11-GR-0589

Awarded: 8/23/2011

Ending: 3/31/2015

Amount: $3,631,696

New America Foundation will launch and promote the Open Internet Tools Project, an initiative supporting the development of open source circumvention technologies; financially incubate open source software projects that build open internet technologies and circumvention tools; create a more enabling environment for participation in open source circumvention projects through ancillary development, such as road maps, documentation, installers, bug fixes, etc; and convene focused code sprints, outreach events and larger meetings of interested developers.

Department of State S-LMAQM-11-GR-0588

Awarded: 9/1/2011

Ending: 1/31/2014

Amount: $2,803,255

OTI will develop a plug-and-play mesh networking solution, Commotion, that builds upon existing open source software to the extent possible, and will generate a body of documentation that provides guidance to a wide range of possible audiences on the proper deployment and functioning of the platform.
