

UNITED STATES HOUSE COMMITTEE ON
FINANCIAL SERVICES
CHAIRMAN FRENCH HILL

Republicans on the U.S. House Committee on Financial Services are committed to ensuring the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) works for the American people. Our goal is to root out the fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement plaguing HUD and the public housing agencies it is intended to support.

Current Issues at HUD

Incompetence and inefficiencies have compromised the safety and security of families relying on HUD housing. The following challenges have impeded HUD's ability to fulfill its mission:

- Billions of taxpayers' dollars have been lost to improper payments.
- Risk management deficiencies have allowed for rampant fraud.
- Insufficient data collection cannot appropriately track program performance.
- Outdated procedures and technology expose the Department to systemic vulnerabilities.

Financial Services Committee Republicans are dedicated to working with President Trump and HUD Secretary Scott Turner to improve the agency and save taxpayer money.

President Trump created the Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) to maximize government productivity and ensure fiscal responsibility. Committee Republicans are standing firmly behind President Trump's agenda to safeguarding taxpayer dollars and regain public trust. Under President Trump and HUD Secretary Scott Turner, $260 million in savings have already been identified. In addition, Committee Republicans are working to:

- Ensure taxpayer dollars are being spent wisely & appropriately.
- Improve HUD's ability to vet recipients and track payments.
- Restore HUD to its core mission by cutting waste that does not adhere to that mission.

Please share your story

Under President Trump's leadership, a transformative initiative is underway to resolve the dysfunction within HUD and ensure the agency delivers on its mission for the American people.
